

AT THE SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS AND BUSINESS

Name of department	Name of position	Part of position	Study field	Required competences
At the Academic Centre of Economics, Business and Management	Associate Professor	1,0	Economics, L100	Pedagogical competence: In the areas of engineering economics, governmental regulation of business markets, management and regulation of energy resources markets, financial economics. Experience of teaching in Lithuanian and English. Experience of supervision of the first and second cycle theses. Research competence Candidate demonstrates research competence at least in one of the listed topics of In the topics of the Sustainable Economics Scientific Group: Sustainable state-business-society interaction ensuring sustainable labour market development; Assessment of investments in human capital focusing on investments to higher education; Assessment of changes in labour market and need for investments in education; Assessment of the impact of changes in economic situation to labour market.
At the Academic Centre of Economics, Business and Management	Associate Professor	1,0	Finances, N300	Pedagogical competence: In the areas of activities of financial institutions, insurance, risk management. Experience of teaching in Lithuanian and English. Supervision of the first and second cycle theses in financial field. Research competence Candidate demonstrates research competence at least in one of the listed topics of In the topics of the Sustainable Economics Scientific Group: Research of financial economics: research of interaction between development of financial sector and economic development; transformation of financial services and institutions; Research of activities and profitability of banks, insurance companies, risk management, business Financing possibilities in the context of sustainable development; Sustainable management of state finances.
At the Academic Centre of Economics, Business and Management	Associate Professor	1,0	Management, N200	Pedagogical competence: In the areas of process management, operation management, development and modelling of applications for business systems, quality management. Experience of teaching in Lithuanian and English. Supervision of the first and second cycle theses. Research competence Candidate demonstrates research competence at least in one of the listed topics of In the topics of the Digitisation Scientific Group: Research of digitisation and technological renewal of the Lithuanian industry.

At the Academic Centre of Economics, Business and Management	Associate Professor	1,0	Management, N200	Pedagogical competence: in the areas of management and assessment of intellectual capital, accounting of nontangible resources, intellectual property management, knowledge management, business assessment and management of relationships with investors. Experience of teaching in Lithuanian and English. Supervision of the first and second cycle theses. Research competence Candidate demonstrates research competence at least in one of the listed topics of In the topics of the Innovation and Entrepreneurship Scientific Group: Innovation and business ecosystems: management of open innovation ecosystem and innovations; Research of smart development and competitiveness of socio-economic systems – research of management of organisational and regional intellectual capital.
--	---------------------	-----	------------------	--